ANGIER BAPTIST CHURCH'S FAMILY GAME NIGHT!!

March 17, 2018
Fellowship Hall 5-8pm

Let the Games Begin!

WHAT Is It?? An evening of playing games from Monopoly and Tiddlywinks to Charades, Checkers, and Corn Toss. Maybe even put together a jigsaw puzzle! The best part - YOU get to pick the game or games you want to play.

WHO Participates? Everyone & anyone! Games for all ages - toddlers to grandparents.

WHY Do It? A Family Game Night provides an opportunity for fellowship and fun, all while spending time with your own family and getting to know others in our church family. Bring a friend - the more the merrier!

HOW Does It Work? A variety of games are set up around the Fellowship Hall. Find a game you want to play and join in. If a game is already "maxed out" with players, find another game and group to "play with." Lots of people and loads of fun!

WILL There Be FOOD? Of Course! A fun supper, desserts, popcorn & drinks will be provided!

DO We Need Help? We can always use everyone's help!

- Donate games or puzzles your family may have outgrown, e.g., Candy-land, Checkers /Checkerboard, Parcheesi, Dominoes, etc.). Bring them to the Fellowship Hall by Wednesday, March 14, and leave them on the stage.
- Volunteer to help set up or clean up the Fellowship Hall.
- Coordinate a specific game - each game will require a "handler" to help set up and monitor.

If your family enjoys a particular game, please bring it and share the fun with others (remember to put your name on it!) by Wednesday, March 14.
